

Data Protection Notice for Anti-Fraud procedure for analysis and signalling suspicions of irregularities and/or fraud to OLAF

The European Health and Digital Executive Agency (HaDEA) processes your personal data¹ in line with Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018² on the protection of personal data by the European Union's institutions, bodies and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

What is the purpose(s) of this processing activity?

The purpose of this processing operation is to:

- The processing operation is necessary to prevent and detect fraud, as well as other financial irregularities or conflict of interest committed/incurred at the level of the applicants under call for proposals/tenderers under call for tenders and /or beneficiaries under grants /contractors under public procurement, and ensure sound financial management of the EU funds which are managed by the Agency. In particular, it is necessary to analyse information which may contain personal data relating to potential fraud or other financial irregularities and decide on whether it should be transferred to the European Anti-Fraud Office (“OLAF”) or not. Alternatively, ex-post financial audits or technical audits may be launched and/or other precautionary measures taken.
- Answer to requests received from other EU Institutions and bodies (e.g. Commission DGs, EPPO, OLAF) or national authorities (police, antifraud office, financial or judicial authorities etc) for their investigations and controls.

Who is the data controller?

The Head of Unit in C2 (Financial Support and Control) of the European Health and Digital Executive Agency (HaDEA), Place Charles Rogier 16, B-1049 Brussels, BELGIUM and can be contacted via HADEA-ANTI-FRAUD@ec.europa.eu

Which personal data is collected?

The categories of personal data that may be collected and/or processed depending on the context of the case and on a case-by-case analysis are the following:

- Identification data: Last name, first name, address, e-mail, phone number (s), etc.;
- Data relating to the data subject's professional details: position within the entity, function, unit, etc.;
- Data related to education: university, degree, etc;

² Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L295/39 of 21.11.2018).

- Data relating to the conduct of the person, giving rise to possible irregularities: description of the serious wrongdoing/irregularity, source of information, causes of the presumed irregularity, impact on EU interests, amount involved, actions to mitigate the irregularity (taken/planned), etc.;
- Data relating to financial aspects: banking details such the account number and the name of the bank account's holder;
- Data related to offences and criminal convictions (Art. 11 of the Regulation).

The categories of data listed above shall be collected and/or processed on a case-by-case basis. Their presence is neither systematic nor necessary and it depends on the content of a particular case.

These data might be found in timesheets, curriculum vitae, reports (interim, final) of staff members / representatives / members of scientific team of beneficiaries involved in grant agreements or contractors involved in public procurement, in prefinancing, payments, in recovery orders etc.

The persons in charge of the above-mentioned processing operations in HaDEA are obliged to process the relevant data only to the extent necessary and proportionate in relation to the files of potential fraud and/or other financial irregularities.

Who has access to the personal data of data subjects and to whom can they be disclosed?

Within the Agency, the following recipients will have access to the data:

- The Director of the Agency
- Authorised members of HaDEA staff when relevant:
- HoUs and DHoUs of the units
- Anti-fraud correspondents of the units
- Staff in units for horizontal services: finance unit (C1), legal team (C.2.003)
- The OLAF/EPPO correspondents within HaDEA

Outside the Agency, the following recipients will have access to the data:

- Members of the HaDEA Steering Committee;
- Anti-fraud correspondents within the European Commission and/or other Executive Agencies for the purpose of coordination and exchange of information;
- European Antifraud Office (OLAF);
- Authorised staff from the parent Directorates-General (i.e. OLAF correspondents and their respective HoUs of the parent Directorates-General)
- The members of EDES Panel referred to in Article 145 of the Financial Regulation, Panel's secretariat and other authorised staff from DG BUDG;
- Authorised staff from Legal Service of the European Commission.

In addition, data may be disclosed to public authorities, which are not regarded as recipient in accordance with Union and Member State law. The processing of those data by those public authorities shall comply with the applicable data protection rules according to the purpose of the processing:

- The European Court of Justice or a national judge as well as the lawyers and the agents of the parties in case of a legal procedure;
- Investigation and Disciplinary Office (IDOC) in line with Commission Decision of 12 June 2019 laying down general implementing provisions on the conduct of administrative inquiries and disciplinary proceedings - C(2019)4231 and Commission Decision (EU) 2019/165 of 1 February 2019 Internal rules concerning the provision of information to data subjects and the restriction of certain of their data protections rights in the context of administrative inquiries, pre-disciplinary, disciplinary and suspension proceedings;
- The competent Appointing Authority in case of a request or a complaint lodged under Articles 90 of the Staff Regulations;
- The Internal Audit Service of the Commission within the scope of the tasks entrusted by article 118 of the Financial Regulation and by article 49 of the Regulation (EC) No 1653/2004;
- The Court of Auditors within the tasks entrusted to it by Article 287 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union of the EC Treaty and Article 20, paragraph 5 of Regulation (EC) No 58/2003;
- The European Ombudsman within the scope of the tasks entrusted to it by Article 228 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union;
- The European Data Protection supervisor in accordance with Article 58 of the Regulation (EC) 2018/1725;
- The European Public Prosecutor's Office within the scope of Article 4 of Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1939 of 12 October 2017 implementing enhanced cooperation on the establishment of the European Public Prosecutor's Office.

This transmission is restricted to the information necessary for the legitimate performance of tasks within the competence of the recipient. The recipients of the data are reminded of their obligation not to use the data received for other purposes than the one for which they were transmitted.

Personal data will not be transferred to third countries or international organisations.

Documents related to suspicious projects and/application can be requested by and transferred to National authorities (judicial, fiscal, police) when EU funds are subjects to potential fraud under investigations. The third countries where the data can be transferred can be anywhere, depending on the country of establishment of the recipient of EU funds where the fraud investigation takes place.

Safeguards: Such transfer is decided and made by OLAF in accordance with the legal framework. In case the third country of destination is not covered by an adequacy decision or in absence of adequate safeguards in place (e.g. administrative arrangement), the transfer might take place based on a derogation under Article 50(1) of Regulation 2018/1725, in particular if necessary for important reason of public interest (article 50(1)d), or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claim (article 50(1)e).

The processing of your data will not include automated decision-making.

Which is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The legal basis for the processing activities are Article 5 (1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 because processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body) and/or the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject (Article 5(1)(b) of Regulation, which are laid down in Union law³

How long do we keep your personal data?

HaDEA applies the principles and retention periods indicated in Common Retention List of the Commission (Third revision of the Common Commission-level retention list for European Commission files) by analogy.

The data collected and/or processed in the frame of the above-mentioned processing is kept under the relevant project (under call for proposals) or contract (under public procurement) file and is subject to the overall retention policy for that grant management/contract file.
